

Request that the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I implemented the process October 1, 2002 by adding my name to the no-call list. My phone has stopped ringing and improved by evenings. I was receiving calls as late as 9 pm some nights and had to install an answering machine to screen calls. This law and Indiana's procedures and implementation is working fine.